Serra Anniversary Observed in Mission

The 153rd anniversary of the death of Father Junipero Serra was observed at the Carmel Mission Sunday. The ceremonies began at 11 o'clock with Solemn High Mass celebrated by Father Michael O'Connell, during which Father Augustine Holbrecht, O. F. M., pastor of the Santa Barbara Mission, preached on the life of Junipero Serra. Assisting Father O'Connell were the Rev. Peter Santi and the Rev. E. E. McDonald. The Rev. Clement Higgins and John Boyle acted as masters of ceremonies, and Peter Elliott, Bobby Morton, Donald Morton and Roger McNeil served as acolytes.

A choir of men's voices sang the Mass under the direction of Noel Sullivan. Following the Mass Excelentissima Maria Antonia Field laid a wreath on the tomb of Father Serra.

At 2:30 in the afternoon the restored cell of Serra was formally dedicated with solemn religious rites. At the conclusion of the dedication ceremonies, Senor Jose Alonzo told the contributions of Spain to the New World, and Captain Antonio Martin gave a talk in Spanish.

The concluding event of the day was a program of Spanish songs and dances under the sponsorship of Mrs. Harry Thompson.

Colonel and Mrs. Troup Miller of the Presidio of Monterey have announced the engagement of their daughter, Rosa Coffin Miller to First Lieutenant Frederic Wood Barnes, of the 11th Cavalry. No definite plans have been made for the wedding, but it will probably take place in November.

Rev. Willis G. White wishes to express his gratitude to the "Californian" for giving the contest, to his many friends in Carmel, Bakersfield, Santa Rosa, and elsewhere for making it possible for him to win the car, also to Miss Perry for conducting the contest in an efficient, impartial manner.

POLICE RECORD

Several cases were disposed of by Police Judge George P. Ross last Friday. William Machado, guilty on a drunk charge, was given a 30 days' sentence that was suspended on the condition of a year's good behavior, plus payment of a fine of $10. Bail of $50 each by Edward Steele and Irving Barbour, both charged with reckless driving, was declared forfeited.

Two soldiers from the Monterey Presidio were arrested on August 28. The charge was drunken driving.

Professor F. H. Herrick of the History Department at Mills College, Mrs. Herrick, the former Mariam Arnold White of Carmel, and their family arrived August 23, to celebrate Reverend Willis G. White's seventy-third birthday at his home on 9th and Camino Real. The Herrick family left early this week.

Commission Discusses Forest Theater Plans

The Carmel Park and Playgrounds commission met informally last Wednesday night with city councilmen to discuss the commission budget for the coming year and make plans for the future of the Forest Theater.

A compromise between the Joselyns and the city concerning the north fence line of the theater was reached when it was decided that the Seventh street between Guadalupe and Santa Rita streets be abandoned; twenty feet going to the property owners and twenty feet to the Forest theater, with a ten foot pedestrian right of way between. The council will take steps to make this land distribution legal.

The Park Commission appeared before the council to make a strong effort to obtain $2800 with which to improve the Forest Theater. The council seemed inclined to agree with this proposal if they may rest assured of the citizens' reactions to this arrangement. In all respects except the request of the commission to employ a full time man to keep the beach and parks in shape, the commission's budget met with official approval.

As the matter of the commission budget affects the taxes for the coming year, the council met Monday evening to give first reading to the ordinance setting the tax rate.

SCOUT NEWS

Announcement was made today by local headquarters of the Monterey Bay Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, that Mr. Jack P. Flynn, assistant Scout executive, was being promoted to the position of Scout executive at Cochise Council, Douglas, Arizona. He will leave Friday, August 27, to assume his new duties.

Mr. Flynn has been associated with local Scouting since 1932, when he first served as Scoutmaster of the American Legion-sponsored troop No. 62, of Salinas. So outstanding was his service as Scoutmaster, he was drafted by the local council Scout officials in 1935 for professional service. Following attendance at the Scout national training school for Scout executives and brief service at the national council office of the Scout organization in New York, in connection with the cancelled national jamboree, he returned to this area in September, 1935, to assume the duties of assistant Scout executive.

Starting at the age of 12 as a Boy Scout in Hamilton, Canada, in 1923, Mr. Flynn passed through all the ranks of Scouting, attaining the Eagle rank, the highest in Scouting, in 1927. Since then he has held various offices in the Scout organization finally progressing to his present new position.

A successor for Mr. Flynn has not yet been appointed. This matter will be taken up at the next executive board meeting of the local council.

5 o'Clock Club Members

The 5 O'clock Club held their first social affair last Friday night in the form of a progressive dinner. Seen from left to right in the top row are Paul Swanson, Ivy Van Cott, Betty Hyde, By Ford, Mrs. Lloyd Weer, Jack Jordan, Betty Carr, Bill Johns, and Mrs. By Ford, (lower) Lloyd Weer, Audrey Loescher, Mrs. Al Sparks, Al Sparks, Mrs. Paul Swanson, and Mrs. Jack Jordan.

Commander J. A. Murphy, Ret. U. S. N., who came to Carmel about a week ago, is now planning to stay for three or four months.

The Edward Kusters left Lake Tahoe Saturday for San Francisco where they will remain for a few days before returning to Carmel.

HOLD MUSICAL

On the afternoon of Aug. 28th, one of the most delightful affairs that have occurred in Carmel in the last few months took place; a musical given at the new home of Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Brennan of Manila, on Scenic Drive.

The artist who performed was Mr. Edgar Kneeder also of Manila, who has been studying voice here on the Pacific Coast for the past few years. Mr. Kneeder sang three groups of songs, included among these were songs by Schubert, Handel, Hahn, DeBussy, De Falla and others. He was accompanied at the piano by Miss Esther Anderson.

After the program, tea was served.

Among those present were: Col. Troup Miller, Commandant at the Presidio at Monterey and Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Smith, Miss Rosa Miller, General and Mrs. Hand, Colonel and Mrs. Charles Daly, Captain and Mrs. DeWitt Blamer, Mrs. Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Tolfree, Mr. Noel Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Horace D. Lyon, Miss Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Bachelder, Mr. and Mrs. Nye, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Winslow, Miss Gertrude Schoeninger, Miss Esther Anderson, Mr. Marcellin K. Brennan, Mrs. Willard and Dr. Harry D. Kneeder of Manila.

SHAKESPEARE READING

The Carmel Shakespeare Company had its second reading of "Othello" in the Girl Scout House last night. Herbert Heron is reading the part of "Othello," Frank Townsend is "Iago," Sally Lasher is playing "Desdemona," Verna Butler reads "Emilia," Vadim Sounitza is "Cassio," Jack Schroeder plays "Brabantio" and Bob Johnston is "Roderigo." Others in the group are Stella Mather, Edith Frisbie, Susan Gregory, Clara Kellogg, Eloise Carwyle, Mary Ackroyd and Mrs. Boardman.

Entered as second-class matter, February 3, 1933, at the postoffice at Carmel, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The Californian, formerly The Carmel Sun, was adjudicated a Newspaper of General Circulation by the Superior Court of Monterey County, California, October 7, 1936.

Subscription rate $1 per year.

The Californian is most sincerely grateful to everyone who participated in our Circulation Contest. Thanks to very hard work on the part of Mrs. W. G. White on behalf of her husband, Reverend White, who won the new Ford V-8, and to Miss Patsy Shephard, Mrs. Leila Mather, Miss Mary Wheldon, Mrs. Douglas Rogers and all the other contestants, The Californian can now boast a circulation second to none in the field.

But we hope that others have benefited as much as we have. We hope that the contestants themselves, aside from finding the contest somewhat lucrative, had some fun. Most of all, we pray that the hundreds of new Californian subscribers will enjoy our paper and get in return for the dollar or more they have spent many dollars worth of information and enjoyment.

Our very best thanks go to Miss Oma Perry, the Contest Director, who has been conducting circulation campaigns for twenty years.

We feel sure that no one could have conducted a contest in a more straightforward and dignified fashion. It is our honest opinion that Miss Perry, aside from increasing our circulation greatly, has given us a much more valuable asset—that of good will.

Once again let us assure you, everyone who co-operated with us so wholeheartedly, that we genuinely appreciate all that you have done, and that we will do our best to make The Californian better in every way to justify your confidence.

LETTER OF THANKS

August 30, 1937.

My dear Mr. Beaudette—

I would like to thank all of our friends who helped me in the Contest and to express my gratitude to them for their loyal support.

I would also like to congratulate Mrs. White upon winning because she worked so hard and I am happy for and with her.

It was nice of you to have a contest and it was wonderful to be able to get the second prize for which I do so thank you.

Very sincerely,
PATSY SHEPHARD.

Below is a letter from Mrs. A. L. Sowter, a new resident of Carmel, suggesting that The Californian undertake to collect contributions to be spent for the maintenance of the Humane Society animal shelter in Monterey. We are wholly in accord with Mrs. Sowter's suggestion, and The Californian will gladly forward whatever money we receive to the Society. We are somewhat chagrined that we did not conceive the idea ourselves.

The Editor
Sir:

Having occasion to leave my dog in the charge of the official of the Humane Society—I would like to express my entire satisfaction at the way the dog was housed and cared for.

I understand the Shelter is maintained by Voluntary Contribution and I would like to show my appreciation of the fine work the Shelter is doing by forwarding a little donation toward the upkeep. It is, perhaps, somewhat presumptuous on my part as I am a new comer in the community, but I was hoping that other lovers of dogs would carry on the subscription list and thus do our little bit to help the "poor of the doggie world."

Thanking you.

Sincerely yours,
MRS. A. L. SOWTER.

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME

By MARIE L. BEAUDETTE

Summer, they say, has reached Carmel when the first visitor is spotted driving a car down the wrong side of Ocean avenue. Truth that is—plain and unadorned. Winter is so far in the distant past that I cannot recall what driving during that season was like, but the facts of summer motoring in our fair city are still fresh in my mind—and renewed every day.

In the first place, promptness in getting to work is essential. Otherwise where can one park short of Mission and Twelfth? After nine a.m., better thumb and let someone else do the worrying.

Suppose my arrival at the marts of commerce is timed to a delicate 8:55. I gleefully edge the machine into the last parking place, thanking whatever gods there be that it is only three blocks (uphill) from there to the office. For the rest of the day I am haunted by the fear that the fruits of my labor will slip through my fingers or out from under the wheels of the car. Rather than risk the certain hijacking of my precious place, I walk—mile after mile, up hill, down hill, and across town. That of course, in time will develop the famous Carmel stance and form divine, that rangey, mile-devouring stride, superb muscles rippling under brown skin, and toe-dancer's legs.

Most days I am not so lucky—MUST go to Monterey. Are any of my friends likely to be going? No, they are at least as cagey as I. What about the bus? Again no, for I have never gotten around to procuring a schedule. No choice but to renounce the claim I have so proudly staked on 60 square feet of the most valuable property in California.

On my way up Ocean in low gear I encounter the following: the mammoth food truck parked three feet from the curb on my right flank and on the left the Whoofus straight 21 whose owner was afraid to bump its Vogue tires on the center curbing. The remaining needle's eye might pass the unloaded camel but not my car. Finally somebody (else) moves. Then at the corner there is a gentleman who has just completed a left turn preparatory to going down the other side of the street, but he is waiting for an open space in the line of cars. However, he has neglected to leave me sufficient clearance behind him. In the meanwhile gentleman B has come down the cross street and stationed himself two inches behind gentleman A, and gentleman C has come down the other side of the street, made a left turn in front of gentleman A, and is now menacing my exposed left. A mulberry bush should be supplied with each intersection. At the postoffice I am temporarily halted by two parked cars, one double parker, and one lady who has been halted in mid-stream by a pedestrian's cry, "My dear, where HAVE you been—I haven't seen you in years. ETC."

On the hill there is in front of me—why never behind me?—the determined, middle-aged female piloting her '08 sports model up the middle of the pavement at the breath-taking—my breath, anyway—speed of 10 m.p.h.

At the turn-or-straight-ahead at the top of the hill a strange spectacle awaits me. The gentleman ahead—Iowa license—has put out his hand to make the turn; the unidentified individual coming the other way has stopped in obedience to the sign commanding same. Eventually the Iowan realizes the true score and the other wearies of awaiting Iowan's comprehension. The mental gymnastics of both are concluded at the same time, and at precisely the same moment both proceed on their way. After that any complications concerning which is the correct entrance to Carmel from the main road are just gravy.

My errand completed, I return to Carmel and the business of stalking a parking place. I spot one half a block down, but the car ahead takes it; I spot one on the opposite side of the center strip, but that too is preempted before I can turn and get back; another looms in view, but it is only an hallucination caused by some fiend's cleverness in taking the exact middle of two spaces. I often wonder whether he's saving a place for a friend in the old school-auditorium style.

Perhaps I find a little spot to call home and stagger back to the office for another stint. I cannot explain the result of that, but I can give statistics. Regularly every six weeks the fenders—all four—are bumped out and refinished. Blushing prettily I can sign an affidavit that I never have hit an obstacle with any of the four fenders.

At the moment I am occupied in deciding whether to return to New York and the security of the subway system or to buy a motor bike or just to wait till winter comes.

Rev. W. G. White Wins New Ford in Californian Contest

By OMA PERRY

Rev. Willis G. White of Carmel, was the fortunate winner of the Ford-V-8 Tudor Sedan, from the Berthold Motor Co., in The Californian's highly successful and exciting Circulation Club campaign, which concluded Saturday night.

Closest to the winner of the Ford was Miss Patsy Shephard of The Monterey Peninsula Country Club, daughter of Major Shephard, who won $200 cash.

Mrs. John Mather of Carmel won the $75 cash prize and Miss Mary Wheldon was awarded $25 cash.

Mrs. Doug Rogers was a close candidate for a cash prize and will receive a cash commission as will Mrs. Verne Regan, next in line, Miss Ellen Skadan, Miss Suzy Chapman, Miss Barbara Crompton and Mrs. Roy Frateis.

Almost as soon as the campaign was announced the high candidates started lining up their friends and acquaintances and did not stop work until the last moment.

The large number of votes acquired will be a surprise to many, but from the beginning of the campaign club members were required to reserve part of their votes. This was done in order that no one might know the exact standing of any one else until after the close of the contest.

To the hundreds of new subscribers who co-operated with the club members in such an amiable and eager fashion, The Californian extends a hearty welcome and will do in its power to bring them a paper that will make them glad they subscribed.

To the subscribers who have been loyal supporters of The Californian since its inception and have shown their faith in the new owners by re-newing their subscriptions, The Californian makes a hearty promise to bring them a bigger and better paper as time goes on.

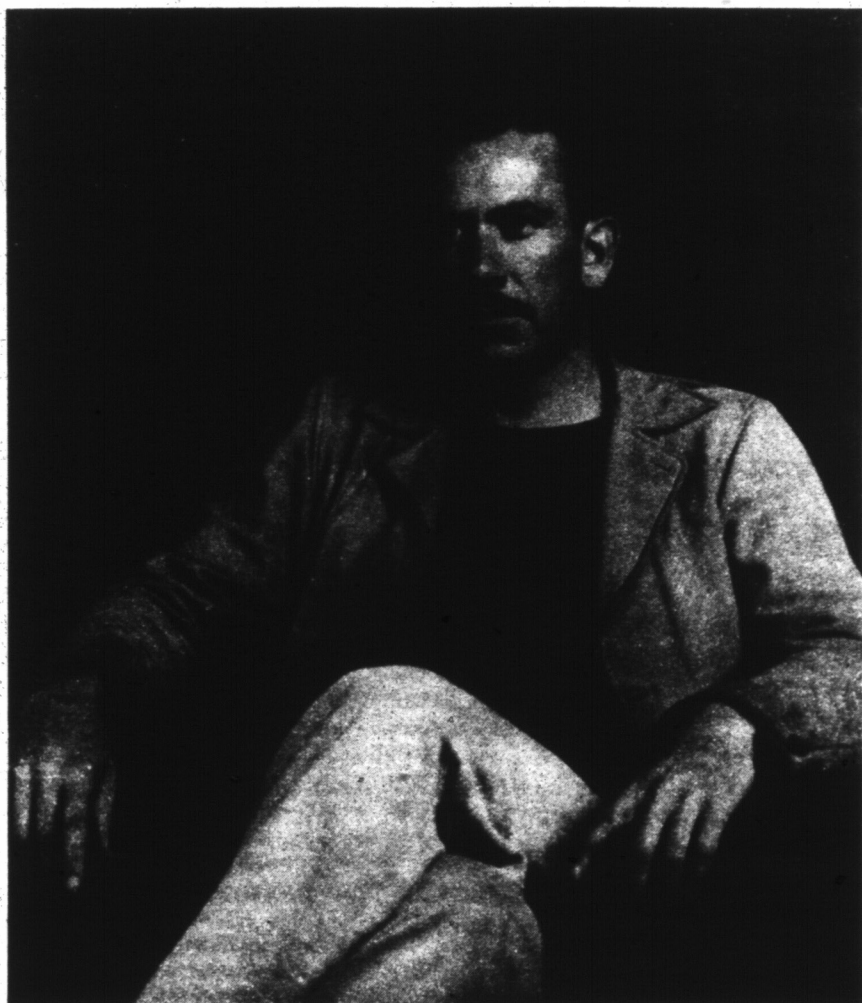

To the judges who labored so valiantly, thanks are due. Promptly at 8 p.m., Saturday night, Mr. Bob Spencer, Mr. Corum Jackson and the Reverend Bodley, judges, took charge of the sealed ballot box, and with the aid of Miss Oma Perry campaign director, finished the count in time to announce the fortunate winners at the Carmel Theatre. Thanks are also due Mr. Lyons, manager of the theatre who so graciously offered the time between shows in which to make the announcement of the outcome of the campaign.

Gratified at the overwhelming success of the campaign, The Californian takes this opportunity of congratulating the winners and thanking all those who worked so hard to bring the campaign to a satisfactory conclusion.

The final standing is given below:

Rev. Willis G. White	8,923,200
Miss Patsy Shephard	8,051,800
Mrs. John Mather	1,876,400
Miss Mary Wheldon	1,194,500
Mrs. Doug Rogers	1,101,900
Mrs. Verne Regan	568,700
Miss Ellen Skadan	534,300
Miss Suzy Chapman	519,400
Miss Barbara Crompton	340,900
Mrs. Roy Frateis	233,400

FORMER RESIDENTS RETURN

Rich and Tal Lovejoy were in town last week renewing old acquaintances after an absence of five years. Rich Lovejoy will be remembered as the clever young man who turned out excellent portraits in wood blocks for the Pine Cone, and Mrs. Lovejoy is the talented sister of Mrs. Jack Calvin.

The Lovejoys have been here and there since leaving the Village, and spent three years in Sitka, Alaska, running the semi-monthly newspaper there. The winters were stormy, say the Lovejoys, and much of the time the paper was set up and "put to bed" by candlelight, and all the type was set by hand. The Calvins took over the job printing plant there when the Lovejoys left and have been turning out clever booklets and pamphlets.

After a few days on the Peninsula the Lovejoys left for northern California where they expect to remain for part of the winter. However, they hope to be back in Carmel for another visit within the next two or three months.

Count and Countess Allesandro Dandini held a reception in honor of Maria Antonia Field at their home in the Carmel Woods Sunday afternoon. The affair concluded the days' observances at the Carmel Mission marking the death of Father Junipero Serra.

Arthur Hatley, from Hollywood, spent a few days here last week. Mr. Hatley, who was in several plays in Carmel, is now working in the movies.

A Message of Appreciation

We wish to thank the contest workers and the new subscribers, whose splendid cooperation during our circulation contest has brought the Californian's paid circulation list up to a new high. We are proud to be able to announce that the Californian now has a larger paid circulation than any other paper in Carmel.

We hope that the new subscribers will like the Californian, and to our old subscribers we say that we hope to make this paper bigger and better with each succeeding issue. Thank you again.

Councilmen's Statement —Petitions to Circulate

The statement of Mayor Everett Smith, Councilmen Joseph A. Burge and Bernard Rowntree, republished in full below, mailed just fourteen days after the statement of intention to circulate a recall petition was signed by E. A. H. Watson, Claribel Zuck, Col. C. G. Lawrence and Fred R. Bechdolt, will appear on the recall ballot, if any.

The one week which by law must elapse before the citizens' committee may begin to circulate recall petitions ended today. It is understood that the circulation of the petitions will begin immediately. Approximately 250 names of citizens who voted for the city offices last year will be necessary to assure a recall election.

The councilmen's statement follows:

Reply to notice of reasons for proposed recall.

City Attorney is appointed by City Council and holds office at its pleasure. City is not required by law to have a city attorney, but council may appoint.

City Attorney resigned as was his privilege and was not dismissed, so dismissal was not unfair or illegal. If the telegram was a nullity it could have been ignored.

Mr. Campbell, at his request, was given an opportunity to meet with the council, time set, council met, but Mr. Campbell phoned saying he could not attend. He had been told his services were unsatisfactory and that the council was meeting to discuss the matter with him. He ignored the council.

The opportunity to resign was offered to obviate any publicity detrimental to him.

Our experience during our service as councilmen convinced us he was not giving competent service in his office. Occasions and facts causing us to reach this conclusion will be given in detail but we are limited to 500 words in this reply.

The final cost of the firehouse in excess of the architect's original estimate was due to increased costs of materials, the requirement that the city pay for skilled labor which the WPA could not furnish, the addition of items which the architect had not included and the fact that the architect's estimate did not include as much labor as WPA would have furnished if it had been asked for originally.

Expense of the audit is regrettable. Whether or not the city recovers the amount spent on the audit, the records must be straightened out. If a complete audit had been made by previous councils, the present audit would not have been necessary. The cost of "outside opinions" was necessary due to our inability to get the service we thought proper from the former city attorney, and the unexpected attack on the audit by the city clerk in the city attorney's absence.

The audit was referred to the city attorney and he promised a written report. He did not tell us it was not his duty to make a report, or that all we were to do was proceed then against the city clerk and let her defend herself. We were never told what to do. The telegram to us left us believing the report mentioned therein as following was to tell our procedure. Not being lawyers we were in the dark as to the proper procedure.

We have no knowledge of any ordinances or resolutions being "haphazardly adopted" that are "inimical to public interest." Ordinances and resolutions are a matter of public record and are enacted at council meetings where the public has the opportunity to voice its wishes and the legality is up to the city attorney.

Council meetings have not been "held contrary to law." No official actions have been taken at other than public meetings. Preliminary

ANOTHER FIRST THEATRE PLAY BEGINS FRIDAY

The doors of the First Theater in California will again be open to theater-goers September 3, 4, 5 and 6. The new play is called "In the Shadow of the Rockies," and the cast think it is even better than "Tatters."

The direction is under the supervision of George Marion, veteran actor, who considers the script a fine one. Lloyd Weer is playing the part of "Judge Thompson," Bob Bratt is cast as "Hank Williams," a saloon-keeper, and Harry Hedger is "Jack Dalton," the villain. Patricia Lee, who did such fine work with the St. James Repertory Company this summer is the heroine "Chip," the angel of Golden Gulch. Grace Robertson plays the part of "Henrietta," a coy young schoolmarm from Boston. Fern Hyde is "Bedelia," an Irish cook. Gordon Knowles is the tenderfoot, "Julian Gray," and Bill Shephard is "Jim Gordon," a successful miner who hides his gold under a brick in the fireplace. Ross Miller plays "Mulcahy," who loves "Bedelia." Earl Williams is "Bud," the handy man of "Judge Thompson," and Everett Gray is "Ned Davis," the stage driver.

The Olio is funnier than ever, and has several new acts.

"Armor" Role Her Most Exciting, Says Marlene

Marlene Dietrich thinks her role in "Knight Without Armor," the famous James Hilton love story which she went all the way to England to make opposite Robert Donat for Alexander Korda, is the most difficult as well as the most exciting she has ever had. Says Marlene:

"In most of my American pictures I have had to play the part of a temptress. Most of these productions have been set in a low atmospheric key with the characterizations taking color from the atmosphere itself. Then when I made 'Desire' I was given a chance to do comedy, which I enjoyed. But somewhere between the sombre melodrama of my early pictures and the high satire of 'Desire' I have always felt there was an untouched emotional territory that I would like to explore. In 'Knight Without Armor' I am in that territory—and very much at home."

"Knight Without Armor" was directed by Jacques Feyder for release through United Artists. It comes to the Filmarte this week end.

The Mission Ranch Club is holding a sport dance this Saturday evening at 9 o'clock for the members and their friends. A large crowd is expected.

COUNCIL MEETS

The council meeting held Monday evening was primarily for the purpose of fixing the tax rate however several other matters were brought up. A letter was presented to the council by the trustee board of the Sunset school concerning the traffic problem. They urged the council to give them adequate protection, and asked that stop signs be placed on San Carlos street at the intersections of 8th and 10th. The board also felt that a uniformed member of the police force should be present at certain hours. Councilman Burge said that the traffic situation would be more hazardous this year, and agreed with the board on their requests. Adolph Hanke, head of the board of trustees then rose and stated the case more clearly. He said that they would no longer have student traffic officers standing in the middle of the street as it was too dangerous, but the student traffic officers would be assistants to the regular police officer in that vicinity. Mr. Hanke also said that they should have white line crossings San Carlos street at 9th which would make a safe crossing zone for the children. Mr. Burge then moved that the stop signs be purchased and said he would arrange for the police protection. The board of trustees can be so informed at their next meeting.

A letter was then read from R. A. Kocher offering part of the top half of the La Giralda building for the city hall. This arrangement would make larger quarters for the city officials, the building is fire-proof, central, and all the rooms have outside light. Dr. Kocher asked that if this plan was accepted the city take a five year lease.

Following these matters, the tax rate for the year was set. The library tax rate is the same, 19c. Toward the paying of the fire engine bond of 1930 it is .03. The firehouse bond issued in 1936 is .04. The two cent tax rate on the sand-dunes it out, and the general tax rate is .90, which brings the total to 1.16.

The Park Board was then authorized to go ahead with the wall and rest rooms for the tennis courts, which was followed by the adjournment of the meeting.

Carmel seems to be unable to escape the scathing criticisms of city slickers. The latest comments brought to our attention are as follows: "In Carmel they talk of art. Carmel is conditioned by the fact that it was first a Village of painters and writers and is now a community of people who can afford to live the aesthetic life. The cult of beauty sought for its own sake without reference to the rest of life makes Carmel a haven for those to whom rough unaestheticized life is distressing." However the touching blow lies in the statement: "Intelligent people usually prefer Monterey to Carmel."

We hear Susan Mott Porter's new house down the coast is the last word in charm and individuality—just what we would expect to evolve from Mrs. Porter and George Seidenbeck, who is building the house.

It is rather unusual for a Carmel merchant to expand as it is generally the Monterey and Pacific Grove merchants who expand to Carmel, but Walt Pilot is soon going to open another creamery in Salinas. Congratulations, Walt!

Probably the less said about the Carmel Bachelors' Bender the better, however we've heard nothing else for the last week.

Madame Ismail adie Higazi, the former Dearest Liston, was in Carmel over the week-end. A former Carmelite, Madame Higazi is now living in Cairo.

Marcelle Radjesky was back in Carmel last week-end after an absence of six years. When here she was connected with the Carmel Land Company.

Louis Hill of St. Paul, Minnesota, has arrived at his Pebble Beach home for a stay of a few months.

Mrs. Grace Parsons Douglas of the Douglas School left Monday for a two weeks' stay in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Pete Taylor left Monday for Seattle, Washington to be gone a month.

Edda Maxwell Heath and her sister, Mrs. Belle Fisher, of New York, are visiting in Yosemite.

Janet Prentiss left Saturday for a four or five months' visit in the East. She will first go to her old home in Dorset, Vermont, then plans to spend the rest of the winter in New York. Following that she may go to Europe.

Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Ralph Risley are in Pasadena for an indefinite length of time.

Mrs. Louise Hasty who has been away from Carmel since the 15th of May returned last week. She has been visiting in Westchester and Summit Counties in New Jersey and she visited her daughter, Hope Hasty in Flemington.

Carmelite's Model Locomotive Attains Amazing Speed

One of the most interesting things now being done in Carmel is the construction of a model engine by Arthur Jennings. Mr. Jennings has worked two years to bring the engine to its present stage, and it will be completed in another year. Every part of the engine has been made in Mr. Jennings' workshop, and he has had no blue prints or outside advice. He obtained all the details from the Round House in Watsonville. The engine has been scaled from 60 inches to 30 inches and will travel 150 scale miles per hour. The Southern Pacific Lines have become intensely interested in the work, and now want Mr. Jennings to construct a more complicated and larger one.

MACK SENNETT MAY JOIN LOCAL MOVIE CONCERN

Word was received here today that Mack Sennett, veteran producer of some of Hollywood's most classic "pie-throwers," was considering becoming associated in an executive capacity with Carmel's own Security Pictures Corporation, now in production on the Robert Edgren "Miracles of Sport," and the "Famous Places" series of short films, which are being filmed in the natural color process recently developed by Richard Bare.

Sennett, it seems, has been out of actual Hollywood production during the past five years and is contemplating his return as a producer, but in some capacity other than that of a slap-stick producer. Now, after a five year lay-off, he is prepared for a more serious production job.

Dick Bare, local supervisor of production for Security Pictures, has received a communication from Irving Hoffman, Eastern columnist, that Sennett was interested in returning to the films. It was this that prompted Bare to communicate with Sennett, and negotiations are under way which may result in the famous ex-producer in becoming actively interested in the productions now being made here on the Peninsula.

Sennett has been attributed with the distinction of being responsible for more of the present day studio executives than any other man. Practically every big movie man today has at some time in his career worked under the man who was to comedy what D. W. Griffith was to the more serious drama. Like Griffith, he pioneered the film technique which is still in vogue today. It was Sennett who first decreed that every film must have a chase. Every picture he made, including the famous old Keystone Kops comedies, was noted for its lengthy and thrilling chases.

Mrs. Jesse Lynch Williams and son, J. L. Williams Jr., returned Saturday from a motor trip up the Redwood Highway.

EWIG REDUCES CITY

HALL OFFER $10

Mr. Ed Ewig, who is trying to persuade the city council to move the city hall to his light and airy offices on the second floor of the post office building, reduced his rental from $70 per month to $60 in order to go Mr. Paul Prince and the Carmel Development company one better when they last week reduced their rent to meet Mr. Ewig's offer. The Carmel Development company is the owner of the present city hall on Dolores street. The council is waiting, we have it very unofficially, to get a city hall for around $20 per month. The next council meeting will probably tell the tale.

Travel By Train

By FRANK LAVOIE

Greasyopolis runs it. Greek restaurateurs always fascinate me the way they take an egg, punch their thumb through it and drop it, yolk unbroken, into the pan. I ordered eggs. Greasyopolis performed for me. I ate the result, grease and all. I blurped and Greasy was pleased because that showed that I had eaten heartily of the eggs and enjoyed them. Then I sat and read, and drank coffee, and listened to the stories of the trainmen and lettuce workers. They all talked about vulgar things and laughed. I turned in shame. Outside was a Mexican and his girl. He had his arm about her waist, I should say partly around her waist, since though his arms were long, her waist was great in circumference. They stood watching my train. It was nice to see them because they seemed happy in their dreams; but they came into the cafe and they were drunk and dirty and my joy in seeing them turned to disgust. They ordered eggs and those I had eaten sickened me. Ugh!

Death Caused by Accidental Fall

Funeral services were held in the Freeman-Rancadore mortuary chapel for Gus Wolter, Carmel fuel dealer, who was apparently the victim of a fall in Robinson Canyon last week.

Missing for three days, Wolter was found by his brother Dave P. Wolter after having been given up by the many C. C. C. workers and Boy Scouts who had been hunting for the missing man day and night. Near the body, which was found at the bottom of a precipitous ledge, was Wolter's faithful little dog "Bob." Wolter's brother said that he had searched this area on a "hunch," and that other searchers had passed within a few yards of the spot but found nothing, the dog making no sound.

An autopsy was performed Saturday to determine whether anything other than an accident was the cause of Wolter's death, but thus far no evidence of foul play has been found and death is believed to have resulted from accidental fall off the cliff.

He is survived by five brothers and four sisters, and was a member of a prominent Monterey family. He was unmarried.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meeker Lewis, of Santa Barbara, former Carmelites, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Samuel Alexander Culbertson II. The marriage will take place early next summer.

I left and went back to my train. It was daylight and I looked for my paper but it was not to be found. Soon the man who had been tapping the wheels came in and sat across from me and took MY paper out of his pocket. I didn't like him after that. He read for a short while and then rested his head gently on his chest and quickly fell asleep. Then I hated him. The noise of his breathing mocked me and he kept MY paper snug in his pocket. I was about to shout at him and toss him out when it suddenly occurred to me that a horse can sleep standing. That consoled me in my discomfiture. We arrived in Monterey about eight. My trip was a success. I was tired and itchy and unshaven. I had traveled "by train."

Many, Many Thanks

PLAY SAFE WITH SILVERTOWNS — The Only Tire That Gives You Golden Ply Blow-Out Protection

IT'S NO time to gamble when you're sitting behind the wheel of your car. With human lives at stake, it's mighty risky to "bluff" with tires that aren't constructed to give you and your family real blow-out protection. Sooner or later you're bound to lose—and when you do, you may have to settle up for plenty.

That's why we say, "Come in now and let us equip your car with Goodrich Safety Silvertowns." Because no other tire will give you the marvelous protection of the Life-Saver Golden Ply—a layer of special rubber and full-floating cords, scientifically treated to resist the terrific blowout-causing heat generated inside all tires by today's high speeds.

Play safe. Silvertowns actually cost much less than other super-quality tires.
